

Trigger Event

Council Chamber of Faculty of Medicine – UMFC
8, Eroii Sanitari, Bucharest

February 22, 2024

Roundtable on Technology Transfer of Digital Health Solutions in Romania - the product pathway from academic research to patient life

Aim of the Trigger Event: To discuss and plan how digital health solutions identified within academic research can be effectively transferred into the lives of patients in Romania.

Target Audience: Researchers, health IT professionals, representatives of healthcare institutions, policy makers, patient representatives.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM:

22.02. 2024	Council Chamber of Faculty of Medicine – UMFC Aim of the Trigger Event: To discuss and plan how digital health solutions identified within academic research can be effectively transferred into the lives of patients in Romania. Target Audience: Researchers, health IT professionals, representatives of healthcare institutions, policy makers, patient representatives.
10.15 - 10.30	Welcoming Guests
10.30 - 11.00	Official opening by Rector UMFC Prof MD Viorel Jinga Prof MD Simona Ruta ViceRector UMFC Prof MD Iuliana Ceasu – UMFC Project Director Lecturer MD Stefan Busnatu- CIEH-UMFC
11.00 – 12.00	The Future of Pharmacy Practice: Telepharmacy and Digital Health Chair: Denisa Udeanu <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Connecting Pharmacy Education and Practice in the Digital Era"- Denisa Ioana Udeanu (UMFC) - Integrating Artificial Intelligence into Pharmacy and Medical Research Miruna Apetroaei (UMFC)
12.00 – 13.00	Panel discussion - Policies and regulations in technological transfer: their role in facilitating the pathway from academic research to implementation. Chair: Vincentiu Cuc (UMFC) Participants:

	Alexandru Florea (ANMDM), Mihai Trascau (UPB), Lazar Valentin (ASE) Cosmin Banica (WING), Octavian Andronic (UMFCD), Iulia Percă (LAWG), Daniel Rosner (UPB)
13.00 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 14.30	Case Studies and Success Stories Presentation of success stories in technology transfer of digital health solutions. Speakers: Virtual Patient - Alexandru Scafa - UMFCF eHealth - the use of innovative technologies at European and national level- Madalin Frunzete - UPB Liviu Serbanoiu – Cardionline – UMFCF Emilian Radoi -MedicChat -UPB Rares Luca- Visenna – UMFCF Horia Cucu - Natural language processing - UPB
14.30 – 15.30	Cyber Security – important aspects for Health System Networking and Partnerships Session Participants: Maria - Manuela Catrina – Deputy Director DNSC Andreea Piersinaru: Cyber Hygiene in Health Care: Strengthening Defences Against Digital Threats Iulian Năstasa Lorin Bogdan
15.30– 16.00	7. Conclusions and Next Steps - Wrap-up and establishment of concrete actions for the future.

University of Medicine and Pharmacy "Carol Davila" of Bucharest, Romania

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 964997. This document reflects the view of Alliance4Life's consortium and the European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information it contains